Note

Elect Director Koga - ISS recommend voting to remove the Chairman and CEO from their roles as a result of a regulatory breach in the domestic equities business. This was caused by the disclosure of an update to an equity market listing and delisting criterion which resulted in non-public information being released early. Whilst this is not a trivial matter, the response from the company has been proactive in communicating and remedying the underlying cause, and far from the complacent attitude to compliance and governance that would merit such an activist reaction from shareholders. We will therefore be voting to keep the current chairman and the CEO, who are overseeing a restructuring in the affected division. The remaining matter where we will also be voting against ISS is the recurrence of the appointment of a director, who used to work at the Nomura's audit firm in an unrelated function, where we believe the company has followed good practice and hence the recommendation is unwarranted.
